

Civil Polygraph Examinations:

These examinations generally are examinations that may be used to resolve business issues in which there is an allegation of internal theft or some other issue that has resulted in a loss to the business. These exams are subject to the restrictions set forth in the Employee Polygraph Protection Act.

Another type of civil polygraph exam would be marital infidelity tests requested by one partner or the other or examinations of sports competitors, prior to the event to make sure no banned substances are being used. There are limits to the number of these exams that can be done in a day and must adhere to proper polygraph techniques and procedures.
